Call to take life-saving appeal to our hearts

By NEIL DOCKING

£128k goal for essential equipment

The British Heart Foundation has launched a £128,000 appeal to fund essential heart equipment for patients across East Lancashire.

The Heart of Blackburn Appeal aims to raise enough money to pay for a 3D echocardiograph machine for the Royal Blackburn Hospital.

Echocardiographs are specialised tests which look at the structure of the heart. A probe is placed on the chest and a pulse of high frequency sound is passed through the skin.

The echoes reflected by the pulse show as a picture on a screen and the images provide accurate and detailed information about the structure, valves, and pumping action of the heart, helping doctors make more informed, and quicker, diagnoses.

Appeal manager Fiona Turner said: "Heart disease is the UK's biggest killer and we need people to help us to reach this target to buy this equipment.

"This vital initiative can only be made possible through donations of time and money, and there are so many ways people can fundraise for us, from organising a coffee morning, to jumping from an aeroplane.

"I hope everyone will get on board and support us."

East Lancashire Hospitals NHS Trust cardiologist Dr Emily Ho said the cardiology department in Blackburn performed thousands of echocardiograms each year.

She said: "The demand for the investigation continues to increase to assess patients who are short of breath, and those with suspected heart failure, and heart valve problems. The new machine will enable patients to be seen more quickly, and this ultimately saves lives," she added.

Dad-of-two Nick Hartshorne-Evans, from Hapton, was diagnosed with heart failure at the age of 39 and admitted to the coronary care unit at the hospital.

Nick, 40, who has since founded the patient support group Pumping Marvellous, said: "I realised how important a 3D echo machine would be to evaluating heart conditions. This appeal will really help the people of East Lancashire."

CAMPAIGN: The poster being used to advertise the new app for reporting some crimes

By PETE MAGILL

Flytippers, vandals and graffiti artists in Burnley, Pendle and Rossendale should be warned — there's an 'app' for that.

Trouble spots across the three boroughs can be reported to the Love Clean Streets initiative, backed by the Keep Britain Tidy initiative.

People sick and tired of seeing rubbish dumped in their back streets, parkland or railway sidings are urged to take a snap on their smartphones and send it to the organisation's website.

Eco-campaigners then undertake some detective work and track down the council or public body responsible for the problem.

The system, which can be accessed via a host of social networking websites, has already produced benefits this month in Blackburn.

Earlier this month, when flytipping was reported by resident John Wilson near the railway line in Glen Close, Little Harwood, the issue was relayed to Great Places Housing Association and promptly tackled.

Another problem with graffiti, also reported by Mr Wilson, off Higher Audley Road, opposite Cicely Street, Blackburn, has been passed on to Blackburn with Darwen Borough Council.

Several incidents were also reported to Pendle Council earlier this year and have been dealt with.

Web co-ordinator Kathryn Halton said: "You can simply download the free app from iTunes or the Windows Marketplace.

"Then you can submit reports of any problems you spot on the streets of Pendle — or anywhere else in the country.

"Then you send a picture and the location and use the website to track your report, search for others in the same area or share them on Twitter and Facebook."

The borough councils each provide their own existing hotlines and online forms for reporting similar problems.

Sophie's choice: African mission

By CHRIS GEE

A talented student is to swap her home in Fence for three months working with street children in Tanzania.

Sophie Greenwood, 22, will fly out to Africa this weekend hoping that 15 years spent as a member of the Pendle Hippodrome Theatre will stand her in good stead as she helps the children to learn music, dance and theatre.

The former Mansfield High and Clitheroe Grammar sixth form student said: "I can't wait to get there. It's been a long-standing ambition of mine to volunteer overseas.

"It's a Government scheme and I went through a tough selection day in Manchester to get there."

Sophie, who attended university in Reading until last year, will be working at the Tanzania House of Talent in the country's capital, Dar es Salaam.

Founded in 2006, it supports talented youth regardless of their social, economic or educational background, and has developed a number of singers and musicians who are now household names in Tanzania.

It also gives education to the children on health issues and the fight against malaria.

Sophie, who will be part of a Skillshare International group,was helped by Pendle MP Andrew Stephenson who advised her which Government department to write to.

After the trip, Sophie, of Hoarstone Avenue, hopes to land a job in London in the charity sector.

INTO AFRICA: Sophie Greenwood and, above left, young children like the ones that she will be helping in Tanzania

Award for first-aid hero Tom

By JON LIVESEY

SMILING: Tom with his award

A heroic teenager who saved his mum's life by giving first aid when she fell down the stairs has been honoured by the St John Ambulance.

Quick-thinking Thomas Garnett, 15, went into action when his mother, Yvonne, tripped and fell head-first down 14 steps at their home in Higgin Street, Colne.

She had head and arm injuries and was struggling to breathe.

But Thomas, who was just 14, drew on first-aid training received from the St John Ambulance while in the Nelson Air Cadets.

He protected Yvonne's arm with blankets, supported her head and told his father to call an ambulance.

The Primet High School pupil was presented with one of 20 Young First Aider of the Year awards at a ceremony at St John House, in London.

He said: "I'm really excited and proud to have won and I'm so glad that I had done the first-aid course with the Air Cadets and was able to help my mum."

Thomas looked after his mum until paramedics arrived. She was treated for several breaks and fractures and has had two operations on her arm. Yvonne said: "In a very scary situation, Tom was a true life-saver."

ADVICE: Cecil Kershaw meets 'genuine' psychic Colin Fry

Widower meets TV psychic

By SAM CHADDERTON

A grieving pensioner targeted by a clairvoyant scam has met with TV psychic Colin Fry.

Cecil Kershaw, 80, from Burnley, has been inundated with offers from spiritualist scammers and foreign lotteries claiming to be able to help him speak to his late wife Maureen, since he mistakenly answered a letter.

Mr Fry read about Cecil's plight in our sister newspaper, the Lancashire Telegraph, and invited him to see his recent show at Burnley Mechanics, plus a free psychic reading.

Cecil's wife died aged 76 in September. He said he answered the first letter while he was still 'vulnerable' and because spiritualism was something Maureen believed in.

Cecil said: "My wife would have been really pleased about the meeting. Colin was her favourite TV personality. She would be glued to the TV watching his shows.

"We spoke about the letters I've been getting and he told me to just burn them.

"Then we moved on to talking about Maureen. I went in with an open mind and I think I enjoyed it.

"At first I wasn't sure, but it was a good experience. It was emotional at times with personal messages from my wife.

"One or two of the things he said could apply to anyone, but once I'd had time to reflect on it, I thought it was genuine."

Cecil said Colin brought him messages from his late wife about finally fixing the kitchen – he's been putting in units and shelving – and thanking him for 'staying with her until the end'.

Mr Fry said: "I really enjoyed meeting Cecil.

"He did indeed show me the letters he has been receiving. I gave him the same advice I would give to anyone – do not ever send money to these people.

"These people are not mediums, they are not spiritualists. They operate a ruthless and heartless con.

"It is better to visit your local spiritualist church, or centre, where they will not only put you in touch with a local reputable medium, but they will also offer support to anyone who is bereaved."

Rowdy youths targeted

Concerns have been raised over youths congregating and engaging in anti-social behaviour in the area around the shops in Brunshaw Avenue, Burnley. Police have made the issue a priority for the next month after residents on the Brunshaw estate highlighted the issue.

Ex-chief's fear of downgrade

A health campaigner has hit out at the transfer of services from Burnley Hospital to Blackburn.

Azhar Ali, ex-chairman of Burnley NHS Trust, spoke at a 'Save the NHS' meeting in Nelson.

He said: "First it was A&E, then the children's ward, and now we see mental health services on the move too. There is a real danger of Burnley General being downgraded and critically reaching the point of no return."

Knit and a natter

Weekly Knit and Natter sessions take place at Queen Street Textile Mill, Burnley, on Tuesdays, between 10am and noon. Learn new techniques, enjoy refreshments and socialise. Admission is free. Call 01282 412555.

Band at Glasto

A band formed in Burnley is gearing up to perform at this month's Glastonbury Festival.

Chumbawamba, best known for their 1997 hit Tubthumping, are a confirmed act at the legendary festival.

Boozing probe

Police in Reedley are investigating reports of youths drinking and smoking in a dugout at Belvedere Sports Club, at the rear of the Oaks Hotel.

Problem solved

Holland Damp Proofing dries out your home and is guaranteed to work

Your damp proofing questions answered

Holland Damp Proofing managing director Evert De Graaf answers your questions about damp and his unique system to treat it.

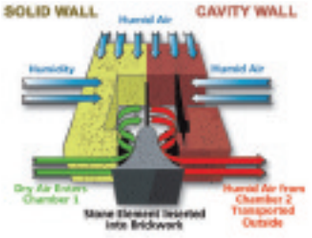
How do I know if I have damp in my house?
Often, the tell-tale signs of damp are fungus and mould growth on walls, rotting carpets and woodwork and peeling wallpaper. One of the more unpleasant symptoms is a strong musty smell that clings to furnishings, towels and clothes. People often ignore these signs and don't treat the problem, but a damp home can pose serious health risks, especially to those with existing medical conditions such as asthma or rheumatism.

Where has my damp gone?
After all the recent warm weather, the usual tell-tale signs might have diminished, or even gone away, but the damp will be back when the bad weather returns.

What can I do to spot damp?
Firstly check your gutters and roof for any obvious water entry; if you can't spot anything, you can request a free visit from one of our damp specialists. We'll give you an honest answer about whether our system is suitable or not.

How does your system work?
The system involves a series of small damp-regulating bricks which fit into specially prepared niches in the external walls of your home, close to the ground, at regular intervals. These bricks are installed from the outside by our trained engineers. Once in place, they allow air to flow into the brick chambers and out again – circulating airflow through the inside of the wall which evaporates the moisture, drying out the wall and allowing it to breathe.

The diagram below shows how the system works - dry air entering the brick and humid air exiting.



What properties is it suitable for?
Virtually all types – it is suitable for use on cavity, solid, and brick walls. It is particularly good for stone walls. It can also be used on most properties of any shape and size, from mansions to maisonettes – we've even installed our system on a windmill!

Is it a big job to have it installed?
No, because we work from the outside, the inside of your house won't be turned into a building site and with our trained engineers doing the installation, it usually only takes one to two days.

Why do you say it is eco-friendly?
It uses airflow to dry out walls rather than toxic chemicals, which are used in 'traditional' damp proofing systems. It is also a permanent solution, guaranteed for 20 years, so it won't need replacing.

What are the advantages of using this system over more traditional chemical damp proofing?
Chemical damp proof courses are installed inside the home so there is a lot of mess and disruption, not to mention the additional cost of redecorating, which - if you have damp in a kitchen or bathroom - can be particularly expensive.

How much does it cost?
The cost of installing the Holland Damp Proof System® is similar to that of other damp proof methods. However, there will be no need to redecorate your home, replace kitchens or bathrooms or re-install the system again after a few years. As all houses are different we offer a no-obligation quote, so you know exactly how much it will cost before we start work.

Keeper may seek to quit Turf

Grant reluctant to play second fiddle to Jensen

Lee Grant's Burnley future is in doubt after the goalkeeper told boss Eddie Howe that he would rather leave Turf Moor this summer if he is to remain second choice to Brian Jensen.

Grant lost his place to Jensen for the final eight games of the 2010/11 campaign, and the 28-year-old knows that he needs to be playing first-team football during the peak years of his career.

The keeper has made 31 appearances since joining the Clarets from Sheffield Wednesday last summer and is said to generally feel settled at the club, so is thought to be reluctant to force a move by handing in a transfer request – despite speaking to Howe about his future at the end of the campaign.

Grant, though, is likely to be open to offers from elsewhere if he cannot force his way back into the side, and Burnley boss Eddie Howe may decide not to refuse a reasonable bid for a man who still has two years left on his Turf Moor contract.

Howe would require a replacement in the absence of an experienced third goalkeeping option and it is possible he may consider bringing in a young keeper on the basis that they would start next term as second choice to the Clarets' number one keeper – a position occupied by Jensen (below) at the end of the season.

Premier League clubs were said to be interested in signing Grant as a number two before the stopper joined Burnley last summer under Brian Laws' tenure, and some of those clubs are thought to have renewed their interest, along with sides in the Championship.

Grant is likely to prefer the chance for regular football, even if that means he might have to turn down offers from the top flight.

The keeper could potentially be an option for Nottingham Forest if Aston Villa follow up their reported interest in Lee Camp, while Burnley are rumoured to be interested in one of Reading's young keepers.

Danish stopper Mikkel Andersen, or former Exeter loanee Ben Hamer, are the most likely to be available, with Adam Federici and Alex McCarthy occupying the top two spots in the Royals' pecking order.

Thirty-five-year-old Jensen had also been considering his Burnley future during the mid-part of the season, handing in a transfer request in December after losing his place to Grant in October.

But the Dane, whose contract expires next summer, withdrew that request following talks with Howe in the weeks after the former Bournemouth manager's arrival in January, and is likely to be content to stay at Burnley as long as he remains first choice.

Bobcats strike gold in pool

Burnley Bobcats swimmers did themselves proud when they competed against top-class swimmers from across the country at the Manchester Open.

Held at the Manchester Aquatic Centre, swimmers, aged 11-16, matched their pool rivals – with golden boy Jamie Sharpley completing a clean sweep in the backstroke events, winning gold in the 11-year-old, 50m, 100m and 200m events.

He also won silver in the 50m butterfly and rounded off the weekend with a bronze in the 100m fly.

To cap it all, Sharpley also gained a National Qualifying Time in the 200m backstroke, meaning he will swim at the National Championships in Sheffield in July.

The Bobcats golden girl was Katie Rennolds, who won gold in the 12-year-old 400m freestyle – knocking more than three seconds off her previous best time.

The Bobcats' third gold of the meeting was won by William Murray in the 13-year-old 50m free, also in a new pb. Murray also won silver in the 50m butterfly, proving his sprinting talent.

Lucy Cole won silver in the 11 years 50m freestyle – a great achievement considering it was her first event at this level.

Bronze medals were won by Erica Minozzi in the 13 year 50m free and the 50m butterfly, while Katie added a bronze to her gold in the 12 years 50m free.

Kerry Holding, Thomas Hamer and Emma Fothergill all gained pbs.

Head coach Michael Robinson said "We can hopefully build on this performance and achieve even more national qualifiers for the championships at Ponds Forge, Sheffield at the end of July."

Lowerhouse shoot to top after six wins

Lancashire League

Lowerhouse shot to the top of the Lancashire League on Sunday as they beat Colne, while Ramsbottom were rocked by derby defeat at Haslingden.

The league's form team made it six wins on the spin – but failed to claim bonus points after restricting Colne to 98-9, with Jonathan Finch claiming four wickets.

Lowerhouse were in trouble at 0-2 as Colne went gunning for revenge for their Worsley Cup loss 24 hours earlier, but Joe Martin made an unbeaten 50 and Francois Haasbroek, who had claimed three wickets, hit 41 not out.

That win put the House top of the pile after Ramsbottom were beaten at Bentgate in a 33-over match.

Shanan Stewart and Jamie Pilling both made 25 as Rammy posted 128-6, but that wasn't enough as Phill Hayes hit 32 to lead the way home.

Accrington claimed the derby bragging rights after stunning Church in a thriller at Thorneyholme Road.

Saeed Anwar hit 75 before being run out as Church took first knock on a damp day and posted 139-6 from their reduced 43 overs.

Accrington were soon in trouble and rocking at 10-3 with free-scoring professional Ashar Zaidi one of the men to go. But Graham Lloyd made an excellent 34 only to fall leaving the score 71-6 and it seemed as though Church would go on to win.

Graham Seddon (28) took Accrington over the 100 mark, but when Jimmy Hayhurst went for 22 it was 126-8 and nervy. Marley Ali made 11, but was out with the scores level and Matthew Schofield held his nerve to score the winning single.

Todmorden are third after crushing Enfield as James Morgan took 5-19 to bowl the visitors out for just 68. Tod got home by eight wickets as Andy Sutcliffe maintained his 100per cent record as skipper.

Nelson are well over their slow start to the campaign and beat Burnley by 20 runs at Seedhill. The game was reduced to 32 overs and Nelson posted 150-4 with David Crotty hitting 40.

Rawtenstall won at Bacup, getting home by 67 runs after sub-pro Brett Pelser hit 72 in their 175-8.

Luke Woodcock then claimed 6-49 as Burnley were restricted to 130-8.

East Lancs got over their Worsley Cup heartache at bottom club Rishton. David Pearson made 80 and Ockert Erasmus hit 56 as East Lancs posted 220-5 before Rishton closed on 167-7 with Craig Smith 56 not out.
